Employment

Contract

Contracts in Australia must include:

- Role and Responsibilities
- Start Date
- Working hours
- Annual Salary
- Pay Schedule
- Leave entitlement
- Notice Period
- Termination
- Bonus
- Superannuation entitlement

Probation Period

A probation period allows both an employer and employee to evaluate the employment match. The probation period is typically between 3 to 6 months.

Emerald Technology can create a compliant contract in Australia in 24 hours.

Insurance

Healthcare

Whilst Australia does not have a social security system, a Medicare Levy of 2% of taxable income is payable by resident individuals for health services (provided that they qualify for Medicare services). An exemption from the Medicare Levy may apply if the individual is from a country that has not entered into a Reciprocal Health Care Agreement with Australia.

High income resident tax payers who do not have adequate private health insurance may be subject to an additional 1-1.5% Medicare Levy surcharge. High-income taxpayers whose private hospital insurance carries an excess payment

(amount for which the insured is responsible before the insurance begins to pay) of more than AUD 500 for single individuals or AUD 1,000 for couples or families are also subject to the Medicare Levy surcharge.

Superannuation

Australia also has a compulsory private superannuation (pension) contribution system. Under this system, employers must contribute a minimum percentage of the employee's ordinary time earnings (OTE) base to a complying superannuation fund for the retirement benefit of its employees. The minimum percentage is currently 10.5% (as of July 2022).

Social Security

There is no Social Security in Australia.

Leave Policy

Maternity Leave

Expectant mothers are entitled to 52 weeks of unpaid parental leave, and may also request an additional 52 weeks of leave. Pregnant employees can begin leave up to six weeks before their due date (from week 34 of the pregnancy). Expectant mothers are entitled to 18 weeks of paid leave.

Paternity Leave

Fathers that have workers for 12 months and contributed to social security are entitled to 2 weeks paid paternity leave. They are also entitled to 52 unpaid parental leave - although only 8 weeks can be taken together.

Sickness Leave

Full-time employees are entitled to 10 days of sick or carer's leave each year. The balance of leave you accrue each year can be carried over into the next year. Part-time employees receive a pro-rata entitlement.
